The C & I Project

The Grundtvig Partnership “LET’S MIX UP: CREATIVITY AND INNOVATION IN ADULT EDUCATION” will address the responsibility for art and culture education in Europe and the different forms that education can take. The idea of the project is to share knowledge and to exchange experiences about how to educate in attractive and creative ways.

The project aims to improve the European creativity and innovation in adult education. The project involves partners from Austria, Italy, Lithuania, Poland and Spain, who aim to:

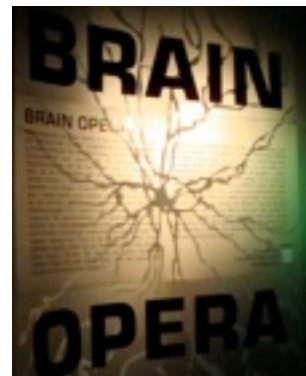

- Promote innovative practices in adult education,
- Motivate people to learn by using attractive ways,
- Exchange creative ideas in various areas of knowledge,
- Develop creative and innovative skills with a specific focus on the transfer to adult education,
- Improve and increase local and international activities.

Culture Circle Activities

Art and Culture are one the focus areas of the Culture Circle organization. The goal of this thematic cluster is to enrich with education programmes with regard to a different culture of teaching and learning, by anchoring art and culture much more firmly within the core curriculum of educational institutions.

Culture Circle is a vibrant, culturally-minded organization which highly regards excellence in creative and performing arts. In the areas of creative and performing arts Culture Circle’s ambitions are set on to:

- Prepare student members for careers in arts;
- Provide continuing education and training in art & cultural productions;
- Encourage development of creativity and performance capabilities;
- Provide cultural enrichment for the individual, institutions and community.

Research & Education

Believing that professionalism is a bridge between peoples, Culture Circle works to make and keep education and culture as a quality experience for everyone. Its team believes professionalism can be a powerful force for life. It has been studying entrepreneurial, art and culture issues while sharing resources and information, working to educate and enlist the support of the entire membership.

Culture Circle does research and training for institutions in the fields of art, culture, education and supports these efforts in Europe.

Culture Circle carries out research projects dealing with current art, cultural and educational issues. The results are publicized by means of events and publications.
